UNIVERSITY
BELFAST

How To Find Us

Thank you for choosing to hold your event at Queen's University Belfast. Below please find directions to the Lanyon Building and main site campus.

The Conference and Events team are committed to supporting the University's vision to become a net zero university by 2040.

Please consider using sustainable transport methods when possible.

The Lanyon Building and main Queen's campus are located in the Queen's Quarter of South Belfast, just a short journey from the City Centre:

By Bus or By Foot

The Lanyon Building is serviced by Metro bus routes 8A, 8B, 8C & 8D. All depart from Donegall Square East beside City Hall and run via Great Victoria Street (Europa Bus Centre) and Bradbury Place before reaching University Road. The bus stop is directly outside the main University grounds.

The Europa Bus Centre provides outgoing links across Northern Ireland, as well as airport coaches and routes to Dublin and beyond. It is only a 20 minute walk from the main campus.

By Train

By Bike

Belfast Bikes for hire are located at numerous stations around the city. The nearest docking stations on campus are located directly opposite the Lanyon Building and in front of the McClay Library to the back of the campus.

Multiple bike lock stations are located on campus.
